

Patients as Partners in Healthcare Education

Could you help train the healthcare professionals of the future?

Our students are training to be doctors, physician associates and clinical scientists.

Working with patients and volunteers is a hugely valuable part of their learning experience, helping them develop excellent communication and examination skills.

We want to hear from you!

For further information, please contact:

-  paphe@newcastle.ac.uk
-  www.ncl.ac.uk/medicine/engagement/patients-as-partners/

Or scan the QR code below:

